One of the most difficult decisions in any type of genealogy publishing is deciding when to stop researching the various family lines and when to publish your findings for others to be able to make use of. Having previously done several other books I can honestly advise that every possible family line has never been researched by every available avenue. This gets proven more readily with each passing year. New genealogy information becomes available with each passing day. It is now believed that Man's knowledge and available information doubles every eighteen months.

This book is published knowing that it is incomplete. I acknowledge that I have yet to research many of the various family branches in this book. A few years ago I wrote Ancestors and Relatives of Reverdy Lewin Orrell, IV, which detailed my son's complete ancestry. Some of his direct line ancestors were traced back thirteen generations. This current series of books doesn't go back in time; rather, they come forward. Each book begins with one of our son's 'end of the line' direct line ancestor and brings that ancestor's line to the present day. Therefore the reader will find our son, Reverdy Lewin Orrell, IV as a descendant in every book in this series. Obviously, his direct line from the progenitor in each book is very well documented. Some of the other descendancy lines from the progenitor have not been researched at all.

Why then, might you ask, is this series of books even being produced, if they are not completely researched and documented? The answer is quite simple - all of the family trees and branches, all of the genealogy data, all of the various source notes - do absolutely no good to anyone else when they are stored in my computer databases, census databases, and file cabinets. While it is my intention to eventually work on many of these lines again; I can't be sure that each project will ever be completed. Therefore, while I am young enough, in good health, and have the necessary funds, I am doing this series of fourteen books. There are several other family lines that are absolutely huge; some have been very well documented by other researchers. There are a few other lines that I will be publishing at a later date.

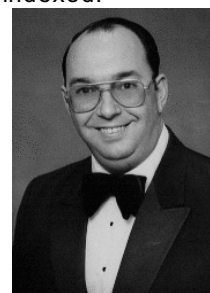

I do not consider myself an expert on any of these lines. Many persons helped me out by researching several of these lines before me. In all cases I have added to their research. Please note that the notes are not rewritten and polished. The books in this series are intended to aid and assist other genealogists who are interested in these various family lines.

Each book in this series is published on a very limited basis. A copy of each has been placed in the Library of Congress in Washington, D.C., Daughters of the American Revolution Library in Washington, D.C., Latter Day Saints (LDS) Family Library in Utah, the Maryland State Archives in Annapolis, Maryland, and the Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore, Maryland.

An index of each book appears in the back. Please bear in mind that only descendants, their spouses and their spouse's parents are indexed. Persons mentioned in the various notes are not indexed.

of Anne Arundel County, Maryland

Listing 107 descendants for 11 generations.

1. Richard¹ PURNALL was born about 1700. He married Rachel about 1719. She was born about 1700.

They had 7 children:

| + 4. | M | iii. | Richard PURNALL, born 8 Mar 1725, died after Oct 1753. |
| 5. | F | iv. | Mary PURNALL, born 9 Feb 1726, in St. James Parish, Anne Arundel Co., MD.
There was a Mary Purnell (note spelling) who married a John Miles in St. James Parish in Anne Arundel Co., MD on 3 Oct 1745. A daughter Rachel Miles was born on 12 Sep 1746. |
| 6. | M | v. | William PURNALL, born 6 Oct 1729, in St. James Parish, Anne Arundel Co., MD. |

Rachel died after 1747.

NOTES for Rachel follow:

It is interesting to note that there is a gap between 1729 and 1743 with the children. A period of 27 years is a rather long time (considering the time period) to be having children. Note that the surname used for the first set of children is Purnell and the surname used for the second set is Purnall.

It does not appear however that the children born in 1743 and 1747 are children of Richard Purnall Junr. Richard Purnall Junr. clearly listed the 'Junr.' in his name. However as his marriage in 1751 to Mary Pickering is recorded, it is possible that he could have been married previously about 1742 at the age of 17 of 18 to a 'Rachall'. Note the spellings for the mother of all of the children listed.

At present there are no clues as to the possible maiden name or ancestry of this female.

Richard died after 1747.

It is interesting to note that there is a gap between 1729 and 1743 with the children. A period of 27 years is a rather long time (considering the time period) to be having children. Also note that the surname was spelled Purnell on the first set of children and Purnall on the second set.

They had 2 children:

+ 11. M i. Thomas STEWART, born 20 Jan 1772, died 7 May 1835.

12. F ii. Mary STEWART, born 20 Jan 1774, in All Hallow's, Anne Arundel Co., MD.
Information obtained from 'Anne Arundel County Church Records of the 17th and 18th Centuries' by F. Edward Wright. From page 59: Mordecai Stewart and Rachel parents of Mary Stewart daughter born 20 Jan 1774.

Mordecai died before Oct 1802.

NOTES for Mordecai follow:

Information obtained from 'Anne Arundel County Church Records of the 17th & 18th Centuries' by F. Edward Wright.

From information on All Hallow's Parish (p. 59): Mordecai Stewart and Rachel Purnall married 9 April 1771. Mordecai Stewart and Rachel parents of Thomas Stewart son born 20 Jan 1772.

From the section on St. James Parish (p. 174): 1771 Mordecai Stewart and Rachel Purnell m. ---- (married by Walter Magowan, Rector of St. James Parish).

Note that Rachel's surname was listed as Purnall and Purnell.

As Mordecai Stewart and Rachel Purnell's marriage was originally listed in the St. James Parish section of the book and then repeat in the All Hallow's Parish section it is possible they were married in the St. James Parish and then transferred to All Hallow's Parish where their marriage was recorded when their son Thomas Stewart was born.

From index # 82 at the Hall of Records in Annapolis: Anne Arundel Co. Orphans Court Minutes, ACC # 4802, p. 183: Appointed to Charles, Mordicai, Elizabeth, Susanna and Eleanor Stewart orphans of Mordicai Stewart deceased (12 Oct 1802) - Ann Stewart appointed guardian to his orphans.

11. Thomas⁴ STEWART (Rachel³, Richard², Richard¹) was born 20 Jan 1772, in All Hallow's, Anne Arundel Co., MD. He married Elizabeth BENSON 15 Dec 1803. She was born about 1772, the daughter of Richard Basil BENSON and Elizabeth CHENEY.

They had 14 children:

+ 13. M i. Ebenezer STEWART, died after Sep 1837.

+ 14. M ii. Joseph B. STEWART, died before Oct 1881.

+ 15. F iii. Elizabeth STEWART, died after Sep 1837.

16. F iv. Susan Caples STEWART, died after Sep 1837. See notes under father, Thomas Stewart RIN 190, regarding will and lawsuit. Listed in the will of her brother BENSON STEWART. Middle name obtained through will of brother BENSON STEWART. In one part of the will she was referred to as SUSANNAH CAPLES STEWART in another she was SUSAN CAPLES STEWART. Middle name could be differed. Writing was difficult to understand.

17. F v. Margaret Ann STEWART, died after Sep 1837. See notes under father, Thomas

- Stewart RIN 190, regarding will and lawsuit. Mentioned in the will of her brother, BENSON STEWART. Will was written on 4 Sept 1837.
18. M vi. Benson STEWART, died before 8 Sep 1838, in Baltimore City, MD. See notes under father, Thomas Stewart RIN 190, regarding will and lawsuit. In 1823 was left the sum of $55 in his grandfather's will (RICHARD BASIL BENSON). BENSON STEWART's will is found at the Hall of Records. It was written on 4 Sept 1837. He died before 8 Sept 1838 (following year). On that date CHARLES R. STEWART and COLUMBUS S. STEWART appeared before the court. Will is found on microfilm on roll WK 1006-2 in book 16, folio 432. He listed his brother JOSEPH B. STEWART as the executor and gave $25 to his sister SUSANNAH CAPLES(?) STEWART caring for him in his illness. He then divided the remainder of his estate equally between his brothers EBENEZER STEWART, JOSEPH B. STEWART, RICHARD STEWART (RICHARD BENSON STEWART) and his sisters ELIZABETH CROMWELL, SUSAN CAPLES STEWART, and MARGARET ANN STEWART. Benson Stewart did not include that following brothers and sisters in his will: Abraham, Mureen, Rachael, Margeny, Nancy, Thomas, and Mordici. These were the youngest of the children and were all probably under aged and unmarried at the time of his death.
- + 19. M vii. Richard Benson STEWART, born 15 Apr 1819, died 15 Aug 1900.
20. M viii. Abraham G. STEWART, born 21 Apr 1821, died 27 Apr 1905, in Baltimore City, MD, and was buried 29 Apr 1905, in Cedar Hill Cem, Anne Arundel Co., MD. There is an Abraham Stewart and Joshua Stewart who gave depositions regarding Basil Smith (see notes under Thomas Benson, Builder of the Benson Hammond House, RIN 177). This could be the same Abraham Stewart. The deposition was dated April 1815. Joshua Stewart was stated as the brother of Abraham Stewart. There is no Joshua Stewart listed in the will or lawsuit of Thomas Stewart. It is possible that there could have been a Joshua Stewart who died before May 1835, the date of the death of Thomas Stewart. See notes under father, Thomas Stewart RIN 190, regarding will and lawsuit. Named as an infant under 21 yrs of age in July 1835, thus born after 1814. Listed after Richard Benson Stewart born in 1819. Estimate birth year at about 1821. Death certificate B 78805 found on microfilm reel CR 48,129. (Hard copy in file). Listed as ABRAHAM G. STEWART, 84 years, 6 days old. Listed as widowed and the son of Thomas Stewart. The informant was Thomas Stewart of 901 W. Barre Street which was the address of Abraham G. Stewart. It appears that the informant was his son. Cause of death: ? of face and head originating from the extraction of a tooth. Length of illness - 1 year. Middle initial of 'G' obtained from death certificate.
21. ix. Mureen STEWART, born after 1814, died after Jul 1835. See notes under father, Thomas Stewart RIN 190, regarding will and lawsuit. Listed as an infant under 21 yrs of age in July 1835. Is the 2nd child listed after Richard Benson Stewart (born 1819) in lawsuit. Estimate birth year at about 1823).
22. F x. Rachael STEWART, born after 1814, died after Jul 1835. See notes under father, Thomas Stewart RIN 190, regarding will and lawsuit. Listed as an infant under 21 yrs of age in July 1835. Is the 3rd child listed after Richard Benson Stewart (born 1819). Estimate birth year at about 1825.
23. F xi. Margeny STEWART, born after 1814, died after Jul 1835. See notes under father, Thomas Stewart RIN 190, regarding will and lawsuit. Listed as an infant under 21 yrs of age in July 1835. Is the 4th child listed after Richard Benson Stewart (born 1819). Estimate birth year as 1827.
24. F xii. Nancy STEWART, born after 1814, died after Jul 1835. See notes under father, Thomas Stewart RIN 190, regarding will and lawsuit. Listed as an infant under 21 yrs of age in July 1835. Is the 5th child listed after Richard Benson Stewart (born 1819). Estimate birth year as 1829.
25. M xiii. Thomas STEWART, born after 1814, died after Jul 1835. See notes under father, Thomas Stewart RIN 190, regarding will and lawsuit. Listed as an infant under 21 yrs of age in July 1835. Is the 6th child listed after Richard Benson Stewart (born 1819). Estimate birth year as 1831. Middle initial could be 'S'. There was a Thomas R. Stewart who served in the CSA during the Civil War. He served in the First Maryland CSA and fought in the battle of Front Royal in 1862. Military: possible Civil War. Daniel D. Hartzler, MARYLANDERS IN THE CONFEDERACY; Family Line Publications, 1986. A person by the same name was mentioned in the - above book on page 280. He is listed as Thomas Richard Stewart a Captain and Chief of Passports in Gen. J. H. Winder's Detectives and a resident of Cambridge, Dorchester City. There are various references cited. However I do not feel that 'our' Thomas Stewart is the same person. There is another well documented Stewart family on the Eastern Shore of Maryland and I believe this person came from that branch.

26. xiv. Mordici STEWART, born after 1814, died after Jul 1835. See notes under father, Thomas Stewart RIN 190, regarding will and lawsuit. Listed as an infant under 21 yrs of age in July 1835. Is the 7th child listed after Richard Benson Stewart (born 1819). Estimate birth year as 1833.

Elizabeth died after Jul 1835.

NOTES for Elizabeth follow:

See notes under husband regarding her lawsuit vs. several of her children.

From: Genealogy of the Linthicum and Allied Families, p. 90. States she was the first wife of Thomas Stewart. I have not been able to locate a second marriage for Thomas Stewart.

There is an Elizabeth Stewart in the 1850 MD CENSUS. She was born about 1798 and had children with her, all born before 1835 which was year Thomas Stewart died. It should be noted that it is known the our Elizabeth had several children including a Rachel, Margaret, and Thomas. The below stated Elizabeth Stewart had children of the same name and an addition child, Charles M. Stewart. It is very possible that this is our Elizabeth.

Thomas died 7 May 1835, in Anne Arundel Co., MD.

NOTES for Thomas follow:

Information on parents and birth obtained from 'Anne Arundel County Church Records of the 17th and 18th Centuries' by F. Edward Wright. From page 59: Mordecai Stewart and Rachel Purnall m. 9 April 1771. Mordecai Stewart and Rachel parents of Thomas Stewart son born 20 Jan 1772.

The Maryland Gazette (7 May 1835) states that Thomas Stewart, died Saturday last (2 May 1835), at his residence on Patapsco, in his 58th year. This would set his birth at about 1777 which is inconsistent with other findings.

From Index #8, Maryland State Archives - Thomas Stewart married Elizabeth Benson 15 Dec 1803. Marriage # 322 by Minister Rev. Ridgely. NOTE: Location of Church would prove helpful)

Will of Thomas Stewart, Anne Arundel County, Maryland, Register of Wills Book TTS#1, f. 218 (1835).

In the name of God Amen, I Thomas Stewart of Anne Arundel County in the State of Maryland being sick and weak in body but of sound, disposing mind, memory and understanding considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs and thereby be the better prepared to leave this world when it shall please God to call me home, do therefore make and publish this my Last Will and Testament in manner and form following: that is to say - First and principally I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God and my body to the earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my executors hereinafter named and after all my lawful debts are paid and my wife's third taken out I will and bequeath as follows: It is my will that all my property both real and personal shall be equally divided amongst all my children either by division or sale at the discretion of my executor and the principal cause of making this will is because I wish my two oldest sons to settle my estate. Therefore I do constitute and appoint my two sons Ebenezer Stewart and Joseph B. Stewart, the sole executors of this my last will and testament revoking and annulling all former wills by me heretofore made ratifying and confirming this and none other to be my last will and testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed by seal this second day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty five. Signed, sealed, published and declared by Thomas Stewart the above named testator as his last will and testament in presence of us who at his request in his presence and in the presence of their other have subscribed our names as witnesses thereof.

Witnessed by: John G. Cromwell, Randolph S. Cromwell, and Thomas Hawkins.

Anne Arundel County, Maryland, the 19th day of May 1835: Then came John G. Cromwell and Randolph L. Cromwell, two of the subscribing witnesses to the foregoing last will and testament of Thomas Stewart, late of Anne Arundel, deceased, and made oath on the Holy Evangel of Almighty God that they did see the testator therein named sign and seal this will, and that they heard him pronounce, publish, and declare the same to be his last will and testament; that at the time of his so doing he was to the best of their apprehensions of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding and that they together with Thomas Hawkins the other subscribing witness respectively subscribed their names as witness to this will in the presence and at the request of testator and all in the presence of each other.

The following is from the Maryland State Archives, Hall of Records, Annapolis. It was from Index # 59 (Chancery Court Records), Book 154, beginning on page 386. Everything not copied at this time. However all names are included.

Ebenezer Stewart et. al. vs. Elizabeth Stewart et. al. Be it remembered that heretofore wit on the 17th day of July 1835 came Ebenezer Stewart, Joseph B. Stewart, Elizabeth, Susan, and Margaret Ann Stewart by William H. Marriott, ESQ. their solicitor into the Court of Chancery of Maryland and exhibited in said Court their Bill of Complaint in the words following: To the Honor - the Chancellor of Maryland Humbly complaining unto your honour your orator Ebenezer Stewart and Joseph B. Stewart of the City of Baltimore and Benson Stewart, Elizabeth Stewart, Susan Stewart, and Margaret Ann Stewart of Ann Arundel County that their father a certain Thomas Stewart departed this life on or about the 7th day of May 1835 having first duly made and executed his last will and testament whereby among other things he desired that 'all my property both real and personal shall be equally divided amongst all my children either by division or sale at the discretion of my executors and the principal cause of my making the will is because I wish my 2 eldest sons to settle my estate and by said will your orators Ebenezer and Joseph B. Stewart were appointed executors. continued. ... that the said testator left a widow named Elizabeth Stewart, and the following children to wit your orators (Ebenezer Stewart, Joseph B. Stewart) and a certain Richard Stewart, Abraham Stewart, Mureen Stewart, Rachael Stewart, Margery Stewart, Nancy Stewart, Thomas Stewart, and Mordica Stewart who are infants under the age of 21 years.

Note: Thomas Stewart (under 21 yrs of age) later listed as Thomas S. Stewart.

Also a Charles R. Stewart not mentioned as a child apparently defended that widow Elizabeth Stewart. He could have been a relative of the deceased Thomas Stewart or an adult child not interested in suing the widow Elizabeth.

A Charles R. Stewart also witnessed the Will of Benson Stewart, son of Elizabeth and Thomas.

...A certain amount of money is given to 'Russell and Stewart' for the use of an open account for Elizabeth Stewart.

From: Genealogy of the Linthicum and Allied Families, p. 90. States Elizabeth Benson was the first wife of Thomas Stewart.

13. Ebenezer⁵ STEWART (Thomas⁴, Rachel³, Richard², Richard¹). He married Elizabeth CROMWELL before Nov 1832.

They had 2 children:

Death certificate # D 29,171 found on micro film reel CR 48,179 (Hard copy in file). States that he was living at 606 S. Paca at time of death. Was 81 years, 4 months, 13 days old, and a house painter, born in Baltimore, and a widower. Cause of death: Brachia Pneumonia. NOTE: There was another Ebenezer about the same age. It is possible they were the same person. Informant was Edna Stewart. This could not be wife as he was a widower. It could be a sister, cousin, or daughter. Edna Stewart was also living at 606 S. Paca. An Ebenezer C. Stewart married a Margaret Warnken on 29 February 1839 in Baltimore City. The Minister was Sewell. An obituary appeared in the Baltimore Sun "Stewart Margaret, 39, on the 24th wife of Ebenezer C. Stewart and mother of 5 children - 27th Dec 1854. She would have been born about 1815 and would have probably been too old to be his wife. An Ebenezer Stewart married Mary Ann Edwards on 12 Dec 1839 in Baltimore City. The Minister was Waugh. There is an Ebenezer C. Stewart in the 1850 MD CENSUS who had a wife, Margaret. It would appear this could be the father. |

Ebenezer died after Sep 1837.

NOTES for Ebenezer follow:

See notes under father, Thomas Stewart, RIN 190, regarding will and lawsuit.

Listed in his brother BENSON STEWART's will which was written 4 Sept 1837.

There is an Ebenezer C. Stewart in the 1850 MD Census. He was 35 yrs old and born about 1815. His wife, however, is listed as Margaret. Also, the children's info and names do not appear consistent with known facts. The information is included here although it is probably not for Ebenezer Stewart, bro. of Richard Benson Stewart. THERE ARE 2 EBENEZER STEWARTS IN THE 1850 MD CENSUS. IT IS POSSIBLE THAT NEITHER ARE OUR LINE, HOWEVER THE SECOND ONE LOOKS POSSIBLE !

It should be noted that Ebenezer, Jr. in the above was born about 1837. Our Ebenezer Stewart had a son Ebenezer, Jr. born at that time. It is possible this is our line!

See notes under his son, Ebenezer C. Stewart regarding an Margaret Stewart, age 39, who died on 24 Dec 1854.

Source: Index to Marriages & Deaths in the Baltimore Sun 1837 - 1850 p. 574. Benson Stewart died 2 July 1850, son of Joseph B. Stewart and M.R. This could be a son of Joseph B. Stewart RIN 192. Joseph B. Stewart had a brother Benson Stewart, however his father was Thomas Stewart, not Joseph B. The mentioned brother, Benson died before 8 Sept 1838.
Mentioned in the Will of his brother Benson Stewart. Was listed as executor of the will.
See notes under wife, Rachel Sparks (daughter of Laban Sparks).
There is a Joseph B. Stewart located in the 1850 MD CENSUS. He was born about 1809 and had a son Benson Stewart. It is very possible this is our Joseph as he was living on the same street as an Ebenezer Stewart !

Ann died 1869, and was buried in Loudon Park Cem, Baltimore City, MD.

NOTES for Ann follow:

Ann was the first wife of Richard Benson Stewart. Ann is buried in the Stewart Family Plot at Loudon Park Cemetery (Section Q, Lot 107 S.) Her birth year and death year are obtained from the tombstone. The 1850 MD Census indicates a birth year of 1826 not 1821.

Richard next married (2) Eva P. (COOK?) about 1876. She was born Apr 1845, in PA.

They had 1 child:

- | | | | |

| + 36. | F | viii. | Eva M. STEWART, born Aug 1877, died after 1921. |

NOTES for Eva follow:

Eva P. was the second wife of Richard Benson Stewart.

His death notice states that he was buried from the home of his brother in law, E.C. Cook. This could mean that Eva's maiden name was Cook. It is possible that she had been previously married and that her first husband was Cook.

1990 Census states she and both parents born in Pennsylvania. Also states that she only had one child.

Richard died 15 Aug 1900, in Baltimore City, MD, and was buried 17 Aug 1900, in Loudon Park Cem, Baltimore City, MD.

NOTES for Richard follow:

Richard Benson Stewart was married twice.

Civil War: Confederate Military records received from National Archives. 3 items from Company B, 41st Regiment Virginia Militia.

The National Archives states that the 41st Regiment Virginia Militia was called out by the proclamation of the Governor of Virginia, dated July 13, 1861, and encamped September 23, 1861. In October, 1861, two volunteer companies were formed from members of this regiment and they were subsequently assigned as Company K, 9th Regiment Virginia Calvary and Company D, 15th Battalion Virginia Calvary. The regiment was disbanded November 5, 1861.

Private Richard B. Stewart appears on Regimental Return for the month of September 23 to 30th, 1861 (return was dated 2 November 1861). This return states he was absent for 3 days on important duty.

Item # 1: States that Private Richard B. Stewart was enlisted 23 September 1861 at Farmham Church by Col. Thomas Oldham and that he was transferred to Richmond County Cavalry on October 24, 1861.

Item # 2: States on 24 October 1861 at Camp Sullivan he was transferred to Virginia Volunteers.

There was only one item from Capt. Joseph R. Jeffries' Company of the 9th Regiment Virginia Cavalry. This reference appears on Bounty Pay and Receipt Roll dated 31 March 1862 at Camp Lewis, Lancaster County, Virginia and states: Enlisted 24 February 1862 at Farmham Church by Capt. Jeffries for a period of 2 years and 8 months and that a $ 50.00 bounty was paid. On the slip from the National Archives is the following: 'This company was successively designated as Captain Jeffries' Company Virginia Cavalry; Captain Jeffries' Company, 1st Battalion Virginia Cavalry; Captain Jeffries' Company and Company K, 9th Regiment Virginia Cavalry. The 9th (also known as Johnson's) Regiment Virginia Cavalry was organized by S.O. No. 6, Hd. Qrs. Aquia District, dated January 18, 1862, which directed the addition of two independent companies to the 1st Battalion Virginia Cavalry, the latter having been formed about November 1, 1861, with eight companies. Captain Saudford's Company served with the battalion and the regiment until its reorganization, about March 18, 1862, when it was assigned to the 15th Battalion Virginia Cavalry as Company A.

It should be noted that Richard Benson Stewart's son, Lewin Stewart enlisted in Capt. Joseph B. Jeffries Company of the 9th Cavalry of Virginia on 24 October 1861 for a period of 1 year.

Last Will and Testament: Hall of Records, Annapolis, MD. Located in Baltimore City Wills on microfilm roll CR 162-2 from book 85, folio:

I, Richard B. Stewart of the City of Baltimore in the State of Maryland do hereby make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say: FIRST, After the payment of my debts, funeral expenses and necessary charges incident to the proper settlement of my estate I give and bequeth to each of my children named in the paragraph of my will the sum of $100 viz: $100 to my son, Reverdy B. Stewart; $100 to my daughter, Susannah S. Sparks; $100 to my son Lewin R. Stewart; $100 to my son Richard B. Stewart; $100 to my daughter Eva M. Stewart. SECONDLY, I give and bequeth the sum of $100 to my grandson RICHARD B. HYNSON. I give and bequeth the sum of $100 to my daughter FLORENCE E. ORRELL for her sole and personal use. Her receipt to be a good and sufficient discharge for the payment thereof. THIRD, I give, devise and bequeth all the rest residue and remainder of my estate and property of every kind and description real or personal, unto my wife EVA P. STEWART, as her absolute estate and property to her sole and separate use and as my sole residuary and I hereby satisfy and confirm all gifts, grants, conveyances and settlement theretofore make, by me, or for her use and order and direct that the same shall not be taken to view or deemed as any question of my estate in the settlement thereof, after my decease. FOURTH, I hereby nominate and appoint my said wife EVA P. STEWART, executor of this my last will and testament and it is my wish and desire that she shall be excused from the necessity of giving bond in the discharge of the duties upon her as said executor. FIFTH, I hereby revoke and annul any wills heretofore made by me and ratify and confirm this and no others as my last will and testament. In witness thereof I hereunto subscribe my name and affix my seal this 19th day of January 1892. RICHARD B. STEWART signed, sealed, published and declared by RICHARD B. STEWART the above manners as his last will and testament in the presence of us, who at his request, in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as attesting witnesses. WITNESS: ARTHUR F. FORMAN, EDWARD ISRAEL, RICHARD R. BATTEE. On the 22nd of August 1900, EVA P. STEWART swore RICHARD BENSON STEWART died on the 15th of August 1900.

It is interesting to note that his sons Reverdy B. Stewart and Lewin R. Stewart are mentioned in his will dated January 1892. However neither are listed in his obituary notice. It is possible that both died between these 2 dates. Lewin R. Stewart was listed in the 1900 Baltimore City Directory. Reverdy B. Stewart was not listed after the 1880 Baltimore City Directory.

Some interesting items are found in the First Administration Account for Richard B. Stewart located at the Maryland State Archives. One item states that 'Flora Emory, daughter of Reverdy B. Stewart, a predeceased brother of testator in full of cash legacy bequeathed to him' was given $100.00. Another item states that 'Reverdy B. Stewart', Lillie D. Stewart, Douglas Stewart, Louise R. Stewart, and Sallie F. Folger, children of Lewin R. Stewart, a predeceased brother of testator in full of cash legacy bequeathed to him under the will' were given $100.00. It was also reported that Susannah S. Sparks (a daughter), Richard B. Stewart (a son), Eva M. Stewart (a daughter) Florence E. Orrell (a daughter) and Richard B. Hynson (a grandson) were all bequeathed legacies. His total administration account was $ 2,815.59 dated 10 September 1900.

The immediate problem that comes to light is that in his will, dated 19 January 1892, Richard Benson Stewart clearly names Reverdy B. Stewart and Lewin R. Stewart as his sons. As he did not die until 1900 it should be assumed that he was truly in sound mind and body and therefore would not have listed Reverdy B. Stewart and Lewin R. Stewart as sons if they were not. He would have certainly read and signed his will.

The Administration Account, on the other hand, was prepared and issued after his death. As it is very possible that his wife was not literate, it is possible that she did not notice the error concerning the two sons, who in that document were referred to as 'predeceased brothers of the testor'. It should be noted that all of Richard Benson

Stewart's living children were mentioned in the Administration Account, as were the children of his predeceased children. Therefore through this account we find the names of the children of Reverdy B. Stewart and of Lewin R. Stewart and establish their death date between 1892 and 1900. This also account for why Reverdy B. Stewart and Lewin R. Stewart were not mentioned in his obituary notice.

Copy of the first page of a petition to the members of the City Council of Baltimore signed by Richard Benson Stewart. From micro-film M1473 & M1474 (Maryland State Archives) we find that R.B. Stewart was listed as a full member in 1890. It also shows that he was the leader of an Adult Bible Study class # 8 that met at 9 o'clock on Sundays. The records were from the Columbia M.E. Church.

1850 MD Census Richard Benson Stewart is located in the 1850 Maryland Census in the 16th Ward Baltimore City, page 147. He is listed as being a 31 year old grocer born in Maryland. His wife is listed as Ann Stewart, a 27 year old female also born in Maryland. Also in the household were: Susannah S. Stewart, age 9, born Maryland Reverdy B. Stewart, age 7, born Maryland Lewin R. Stewart, age 5, born Maryland Ann E. Stewart, age 3, born Maryland Margaret A. Stewart, age 1, born Maryland Ellen Farming, age 16, born Ireland (probably a servant) Susannah Smith, age 60, born Maryland (mother in law)

1870 Census: 1880 MD Census states that children Eva M. (3 yrs old) and Richard J. (18 yrs old) were both born Virginia. If this is true R.B. Stewart is probably located in Virginia in both the 1860 and 1870 Census. He is not located in MD during these two census. He is however located in the BCD as late as 1865 but is not listed again until 1880. Therefore he probably was in Virginia from about 1865 until 1880.

1880 MD Census ED 121, page 28. Baltimore City. They were living at 13 Pennsylvania Avenue. Richard Benson Stewart is listed as a 61 year old Commission Merchant who was born in Maryland as were both his parents. Listed with him is his wife Eva P. Stewart (2nd wife) who is 35 years old and born in Pennsylvania. Living in the house were a 3 year old daughter, Eva M. Stewart and Richard J. Stewart an 18 year old.

It appears that Richard B. Stewart and Ann were living in Virginia at the time Richard J. Stewart's birth and Ann's death. This would explain his absence from the Baltimore City Directory for a period of 15 years.

Also listed in the 1880 census was Susan Courtney, a 17 year old white female servant.

1890: Only Census available would be Veteran's Civil War Census. It is known that R. B. Stewart did not serve the Union Army from Maryland. It is possible that he served either the Union or Confederate Army of Virginia. Being born in 1819 he could have served in the Civil War.

1900 MD Census: ED 159, page 9: Baltimore City - 22nd Street Richard Benson Stewart is located as a boarder with his wife Eva P. Stewart. The Head of Household is listed as T. Russell Carmen a 26 year old male born in Maryland in Nov 1873. With Mr. Carmen is his wife Eva M. Carmen, a 22 year old white female born in Maryland in August 1877. This closely matches the information regarding Richard Benson Stewart's daughter Eva M. who was also born in 1877 according to the 1880 Maryland Census. The only discrepancy we have is the state of birth. It therefore appears that this Eva M. Carmen (Carmes?) is the daughter of Richard B. Stewart and his second wife Eva P. Stewart. It should also be noted that Eva M. Carmen states her mother was born in Pennsylvania and that Eva P. Stewart claims Pennsylvania as her birth state. She further states that she had been married 24 years, setting a marriage date of about 1876 and that she was the mother of one child and that child was still living.

Also living in the household were Mary E. Carmen, another boarder, who is listed as a 60 year old widow born December, 1839, in Pennsylvania. Another boarder is identified as Sally Carmen a 36 year old single female born in Pennsylvania in February, 1864.

29. Susannah⁶ S. STEWART (Richard⁵, Thomas⁴, Rachel³, Richard², Richard¹) was born about 1841, in MD. She married Shadrack Green SPARKS 6 Sep 1865, in MD. He was born about 1820, in Sparks Station, District #8, Baltimore Co.,

MD, the son of Laban SPARKS and Rachel PERDUE.

They had 7 children:

| 37. | | i. | S. G. SPARKS. Mentioned in the article regarding father. Listed as one of the children: 'S.G. Sparks, now a resident of Sparrows Point, twelfth district.' S.G. Sparks was the first child listed. Assume he is the oldest. As both parents, Shadrack and Susannah had first names beginning with a 'S' can not be sure of the sex or name. Could easily be Susannah Green Sparks or Shadrack Green Sparks, Jr. |
| 38. | M | ii. | Laban SPARKS, born about 1870, in Sparks, Baltimore Co., MD. Laban Sparks in mentioned in an article on his father. He is cited as the 3rd of 5 children mentioned. However in an article on his brother, Richard Benson Sparks, Sr. it is stated that 7 children were born. |
| + 39. | M | iii. | Richard Benson SPARKS, born 26 Nov 1872, died 1 Jan 1954. |
| 40. | M | iv. | Reverdy B. SPARKS, born about 1872, in Sparks, Baltimore Co., MD. Mentioned in an article on his father, Shadrack Sparks: 'Reverdy B., of Oil City, Pa'. Middle name could be Benson. |
| 41. | F | v. | Annie E. SPARKS, born about 1874, in Sparks, Baltimore Co., MD, died after 1897. Annie E. Sparks is mentioned in an article on her father. She is cited as the 5th of 5 children. However in an article on her brother, Richard Benson Sparks, Sr. it is stated that 7 children were born. Annie E. Sparks is mentioned in the article as 'Annie E., at home' (book was written in 1897). |
| 42. | | vi. | _____ SPARKS, born before 1897. Article on brother, Richard Benson Spark, Sr. states that he was 1 of 7 children. Only five children were mentioned in article on father, Shadrack G. Sparks. |
| 43. | | vii. | _____ SPARKS, born before 1897. Mentioned in article on brother, Richard Benson Sparks, Sr. He is 1 of 7 children. Only 5 children mentioned in article on father, Shadrack G. Sparks. |

Shadrack died 17 May 1879, in Baltimore Co., MD.

NOTES for Shadrack follow:

Member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Agriculturist. Shadrach d. 17 May 1879.

From the book 'Genealogical and Biographical Record of Leading Families of the City of Baltimore and Baltimore County', p. 642:

Shadrach D. (note: should be G.) Sparks departed this life May 17, 1879, after a career rich in those rare possessions which only a high character can give. He spent his entire life at Sparks Station in District # 8, a place named in honor of his father, Laban Sparks, whose birth also occurred there. The grandfather, Thomas Sparks, made his home in the county for many years. The family, which was one of prominence, was founded here by English emigrants during the seventeenth century. Capt. John Sparks, who first located in Virginia, and later in Maryland, was present at the wedding of Pocahontas.

A public-spirited, progressive man, Laban Sparks assisted in building the Northern Central Railroad through his district and have a liberal support to all enterprises for public advancement. He married a Miss Green, who owned a large tract of land known as Taylor's Purchase. In the districts schools near his boyhood home, Mr. Sparks of this review (Shadrack) obtained his early education, which was supplemented by a course in Sweet Air Academy of Baltimore County, and upon the home farm he was reared to habits of industry and thrift. He inherited the large estate belonging to his father, and became one of the enterprising agriculturist and business men of the community, being the first to ship milk by railroad to the city markets. He met with excellent success in his undertakings, was a very influential and prominent citizen, and was a strong Union man, although a slave owner, and became an ardent supporter of the Republican party. He was a faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which he was trustee for a number of years, and was liberal and generous almost to a fault. That characteristic was manifest even on his death-bed, when he conferred a favor upon one of his fellow citizens. For many years he labored with all the strength of a great nature and all the earnestness of a true heart for the betterment of the world about him; and when called to the rest and reward of the higher world his best monument was found in the love and respect of the community in which he lived for so many years.

September 6, 1865, Mr. Sparks married Miss Susannah Stewart, a daughter of Richard B. Stewart, who belonged to a prominent Virginian family. Five children were born to them, S.G., now a resident of Sparrows Point, twelfth district; Richard B., of Baltimore, Laban, an attorney of Baltimore, Reverdy B., of Oil City, Pa.; and Annie E., at home.'

NOTE: I can find no record of the above mentioned 'prominent Virginian family'.

From obituary notice in Baltimore Sunpaper: 'Suddenly in his 59th year'.

From 'The Sparks Quarterly' June, 1968 (in part):

(FIRST GENERATION) Josiah Sparks, the earliest ancestor of this branch of the Sparks family about whom definite information has been obtained, was born about 1729. The earliest official record which has been found pertaining to Josiah Sparks is that of his marriage. In the records of St. Anne's Parish, Annapolis, in Anne Arundel County, MD, is the following: 'Josiah sparks married July 15, 1749, to Penelope Brown, by the Rev. Mr. Andrew Lendrum.' One deed involving Josiah Sparks is on record in Anne Arundel County. It is dated December 9, 1749, and records the sale of fifty acres of land by Josiah Sparks to Doctor James Doull. This tract of land was called 'Hunting Park' and was located in Frederick County, Maryland. Doctor Doull, who was a resident of Frederick County, paid 'twelve pounds Maryland currency' for the tract. Josiah Sparks was identified in this deed as being a 'planter of Ann Arundle County in the province of Maryland.' How he had come into the possession of this land has not been learned - perhaps he was a resident of Frederick County at an earlier date.

By 1759 Josiah Sparks had moved to Baltimore County, Maryland, for in that county on August 7, 1759, he received a mortgage from Gale Frizell. In all probability, Josiah Sparks was a son of Thomas Sparks who purchased 162 acres of land in Anne Arundel County, Maryland, in 1748. Thomas Sparks moved to Baltimore County between 1752 and 1756. The last record among the Baltimore County land records pertaining to Thomas Sparks is a certificate dated 1760 which he held for 38 acres in Baltimore County called 'Hawk's Nest.' A patent was not issued for some reason, so he was never actually granted the land. Thomas Sparks was still alive in 1765 when he was named as Josiah's only relative 'in this province' when the latter's estate was settled. (In this connection, widows and children were not considered as 'relatives') (See The Sparks Quarterly, Vol III, No 3, Whole No. 11, September, 1955, pp 79-80, for additional notes on Thomas Sparks.)

Josiah Sparks died in 1765 in Baltimore County. Unfortunately, he did not leave a will. His wife, Penelopy, was appointed administratrix. Her inventory of Josiah's estate has been preserved it was dated June 17, 1765, and amounted to slightly over 84 pounds.

Penelopy (Brown) Sparks, widow of Josiah, was married, second, on April 10, 1770 to Aquilla Wyle. This marriage is recorded in St. John's & St. George's P.E. Church in Harford County, Maryland. (In 1770 Harford County was part of Baltimore County - it was cut off from Baltimore County in 1773.) By 1781 Penelopy and her second husband had moved to Shrewsbury Township, York County, Pennsylvania.

Josiah and Penelopy (Brown) Sparks were the parents of five children, as follows:

Richard died 1 Jan 1954, in Union Mem Hosp, Baltimore City, MD, and was buried in St John Epis Cem, Glyndon, Baltimore Co., MD.

NOTES for Richard follow:

From 'The Free State of Maryland' by Frederick Arnold Kummer, p. 631-2: 'If one were to sum up the outstanding characteristics of Richard Benson Sparks in a single sentence, it would be said the indolence and idleness are utterly foreign to his nature, which makes the reverse true that diligence and industry have brought him to the Presidency of the Caroline Foundry Company of Baltimore. A native of Baltimore County, he was born at Sparks, November 26, 1872, being one of the seven children of Shadrack and Suzanna (Stewart) Sparks and a descendant of one of the oldest families of America. The founder of the family in the New World, a native of England, accompanied Captain John Smith when he crossed the Atlantic and settled at Jamestown, Virginia. Subsequently the family was established in Maryland and the township of Sparks in Baltimore County was so named in honor of the family.. Suzanna (Stewart) Sparks, mother of Richard Benson Sparks, was a daughter of Richard Benson Stewart, a landowner and farmer of Anne Arundel County, Maryland. One of the great-great grandfathers of Richard B. Sparks was General Nathaniel Greene of Revolutionary War fame and the Sparks, Benson, Greene, and Stewart families were all connected with the early history of Maryland and have contributed to the upbuilding and progress of the state in notable degree.

Richard Benson Sparks was reared on his father's dairy farm and early became familiar with the work incident to the care and improvement of the place. He there remained until eighteen years of age and in the meantime he acquired his education in the little red schoolhouse near the old homestead. After leaving the parental roof he secured a position with the Maryland Steel Company at Sparrows Point and thus entered upon a line of business which as led him eventually to his present place in the business world. He there learned much concerning the steel and iron industry, working as a clerk in the office, which gave his opportunity to acquaint himself with many phases of the work. There have been few idle moments in his entire life; on the contrary hard work and unflinching perseverance have enabled him to conquer all difficulties in his path and push steadily forward to the goal of prosperity. After workings for others for some time, he decided to engage in business on his own account and in 1912 purchased a third interest in the Caroline Foundry Company, while subsequently he acquired the controlling interest in the business and is now President of the company. He has developed one of Baltimore's large foundry interests manufacturing high grade semi-steel and iron castings, the product of the plant finding a ready sale on the market. Something of the continuous growth and development of the business is indicated in the fact that when Mr. Sparks bought the business there were only ten men on the payroll, while today sixty are employed at the plant.

Mr. Sparks was married on June 14, 1918, to Miss Amice Jones of Ridgeley, Maryland, a daughter of Thomas W. Jones, President of the Denton Bank. Mr. and Mrs. Sparks have one son, Richard Benson, Jr., who was born April 5, 1923, and is a student in the Gilmon School. Mr. Sparks is well known in Masonic circles. He has membership in Patapsco Lodge, No 183 A.F. & A.M., has attained the thirty-second degree in the Scottish Rite Consistory and is a member of Boumi Temple, A.A.O.N.M.S. He belongs to the Rotary Club and he is an independent voter, exercising his right of franchise in support of men and measures rather than of party. He resides on Belfast Farm, which he owns, and which is situated about five miles from Sparks, in the neighborhood in which he was born, and there he raises Guernsey cattle in which he is much interested. His business is at 723 South Caroline Street. He is a man of unflinching purpose and his record shows what can be accomplished through individual effort, intelligently directed.'

From his obituary notice in the Baltimore Sunpaper: 'Funeral services for Richard Benson Sparks, 81, for many years president of the Caroline Foundry Company, were held Monday at the St. John's Episcopal Church, Glyndon. Burial was in the adjoining cemetery. A resident of Belfast road, Sparks, MD, Mr. Sparks died at Union Memorial Hospital on January 1. Son of the late Shadrack Green Sparks and Susannah Stewart Sparks, Mr. Sparks left the family farm, at Sparks, to join his grandfather in the produce business in Baltimore. Later, he was associated with the Maryland Steel Company at Sparrows Point, now the Bethlehem Steel Company. In 1912 he became the owner of the Caroline Foundry Company and for many years was its president. Three years ago he became chairman of the board. Mr. Sparks was a thirty-second degree Mason and a Past Master of the Patapsco Lodge. For 25 years he was a member of the Baltimore Rotary Club. He served as a vestryman at St. John's Church. Mr. Sparks is survived by his widow, Mrs. Aimce Jones Sparks, and a son, Richard B. Sparks, Jr.'

NOTE: It is very probable that the above mentioned grandfather in the produce business in Baltimore was Richard Benson Stewart, Sr. It is unknown what line of work the Sparks grandfather was involved in. It is stated in the article on Shadrack Sparks that Laban Sparks ' became one of the enterprising agriculturists and business men of the community, being the first to ship milk by railroad to the city markets.'

The 1900 Census shows her as being born in Feb 1882. The first 2 children in the 1900 Census were born in Washington, D.C. It is possible that the other unaccounted for child could have also been born in Washington, D.C. Reverdy Lewin Orrell III was listed as the 8th child born to the mother.

Death certificate (hard copy in file) # 53 11379 claims he died at Lutheran Hospital. It lists the cemetery as New Cathedral in Baltimore. The informant was his wife, Catherine M. White. (Second wife).

Located in the 1920 MD Census which was difficult to read. Found in ED 353, page 15. He was living at 2550 West Fayette Street and was shown as a 28 year old male who was a cutter in a men's clothing factory. He was buying a home.

Also listed with him were: (again difficult to read): Carrie E. Orrell, his wife, aged 40, born in Maryland as were both parents. George S. Sumlin, probably a step son in law, aged 24, born Maryland Marie M. Sumlin, a 20 year old step daughter. Les McConville a 19 year old, musician in a hotel George McConville, a 16 year old mechanic in an auto shop. Edna McConville, a 15 year old marker in a dress factory. James McConville, a 13 year old.

It appears that the McConvilles are all children of Carrie E. Orrell, who it is known had been previously married. It would also appear that the Marie M. Sumlin was also her daughter who was now married to George Sumlin.
